On 11th March I interviewed the centre midfielder of Hereford FC Rob Purdie. Rob Purdie has played for many high league and lower league clubs including Leicester, Shrewsbury, Tamworth, Oldham and is now currently playing for Hereford FC.

Rob Purdie is now aged 35 and is now coming to the end of his career. I decided to ask him a few questions. The first question that I asked was “how do you feel about the defeat against Kingsley?” He replied, “it was disappointing and we played poorly but I think we are still top to win the league and I am still positive about the season ahead”.

When asked “how do you feel the season has gone for you personally?” He said that “it’s gone ok but I have struggled with injuries, as in the middle of the season I pulled my hamstring and was out for 6-7 weeks but after that I have been playing quite well”. Thirdly I asked him, “Does the crowd help urge you on as you have the biggest stadium in the league?” He answered, “Well, yes, but it can also help the opponents as it can give them belief and hope that they can win as well”.

Lastly, I asked him, “What advice do you give to young footballers?” He said, “Just enjoy it and love to win!”

Purdie will always be a legend for Hereford. Purdie is humble and nice guy and will achieve things later in life.
