

School Direct Information

We are proud to be a major partner within the Hereteach Alliance with a consistent record of successful high quality teacher training. Trainees will be supported by our school based Initial Teacher Training Manager, a school based subject mentor and by university based courses with our delivery and accreditation partner, The University of Worcester.

School Direct at Whitecross Hereford

Places

Our places are on the unsalaried fee-paying School Direct Training Programme.

Applications

All applications must be made via UCAS. Our places/courses on UCAS may be listed under the name of "Hereteach Alliance". You should however be able to name 'Whitecross Hereford' as you further proceed through UCAS. <https://wwwucas.com/ucas/teacher-training>

Subject placements available for 2016 - 2017

| | | |
|------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------------|
| English OPEN | History OPEN | Science OPEN |
| Mathematics OPEN | Physical Education OPEN | Modern Foreign Languages OPEN |

If you wish to train in a subject area that is not listed above please get in touch.

Bursaries

Our places are unsalaried, but bursaries may be available from the Department for Education.

Accreditation and Central training

Our delivery partner is the University of Worcester. You will spend some of your time studying at the university and you will follow a bespoke programme of professional studies in school.

Interviews, qualification checks, skills tests and confirmation of places

Administration is managed by the University of Worcester. Interviews at the university will be followed by a morning in school which will include an observed lesson with a group of students and a formal interview.

Visits

Please contact us at school to arrange a visit mpratt@whitecross.hereford.sch.uk or dwoodward@whitecross.hereford.sch.uk

Partner Schools

As part of the Hereteach Alliance <http://hereteach.org.uk/school-direct/>, we have partnership arrangements with several local schools. Main placements will be at Whitecross Hereford, second placements will be personalised to meet identified training needs.
